G. A. Falconer, Esq.,

University of Groningen, Holland.

Dear Mr. Falconer:

This morning I have received your very kind letter asking me to stay with you when I am to be in Groningen. It is very kind of Mrs. Falconer and yourself to send me the invitation which I accept with great pleasure. Identity of name will undoubtedly bring us community of interests, particularly as I suppose you hail from Scotland, and I was educated in Edinburgh.

I expect to sail from New York by the "Noordam" on June 16th and to spend one or two days in Leiden and Amsterdam, and to arrive at Groningen on the 29th. Any letter directed to me on board the "Noordam" at Rotterdam should reach me. With kind regards and pleasant anticipations,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
